Job Description

POSITION TITLE

International Corporate Banking Officer (Japanese Speaking)

COMPANY OVERVIEW

A company in the banking industry is hiring for an International Banking Officer position. This role offers the opportunity to work closely with high-value clients while contributing to the growth of a dynamic financial portfolio. The organization values strong client relationships, sound financial practices, and a collaborative approach that emphasizes ownership, accountability, and positive customer experiences.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manage and grow a portfolio of high-value client relationships across loan and deposit products while maintaining strong profitability and risk management standards
- Support relationship management efforts by assisting with client servicing, onboarding new clients, and responding to inquiries
- Handle a range of banking operations including account opening, wire transfers, overdraft monitoring, loan processing, documentation, and portfolio maintenance
- Monitor credit quality by tracking financial trends, managing renewals, minimizing delinquencies, and ensuring compliance with internal policies and procedures
- Identify opportunities to expand client relationships through the promotion of deposit, loan, and related financial products and services
- Participate in business and community groups to strengthen client networks and enhance market presence
- Where applicable, oversee business unit compliance activities, including regulatory risk assessment, policy implementation, training coordination, and audit support

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree in Business Administration or a related field
- 6 or more years of experience in relationship banking with high-net-worth individuals and/or business clients for the International Banking Officer III level
- 7 or more years of relevant experience for the Senior International Banking Officer level
- Fluency in spoken and written Japanese
- Strong relationship management, communication, and problem-solving skills
- Ability to manage multiple priorities with attention to detail and accuracy
- Knowledge of credit management practices and regulatory compliance requirements
- Proficiency in standard office tools and ability to work effectively in a professional office environment
