Job Description

Role: Financial Analyst

Location: Singapore

Our client is an established multinational organization with a strong regional presence across Asia Pacific. They are looking for a Financial Analyst to join their Regional FP&A team based in Singapore.

This role offers broad exposure to budgeting, forecasting, management reporting, financial analysis and business partnering across multiple markets within Southeast Asia.

Key Responsibilities

- Support annual budgeting, rolling forecasts and business planning activities.
- Prepare monthly, quarterly and annual management reporting packs.
- Perform variance analysis against budget, forecast and prior year performance.

- Support business stakeholders through financial analysis and decision support.
- Monitor operating expenses and assist budget owners during planning cycles.
- Prepare sales, profitability and cost reports across different business segments.
- Support month-end and year-end reporting processes.
- Participate in reporting enhancement and process improvement initiatives.

What We're Looking For

- Degree in Accounting, Finance or related discipline.
- Minimum 5 years of FP&A, financial analysis or commercial finance experience.
- Experience supporting regional markets, business units or multiple stakeholders would be advantageous.
- Strong financial analysis, reporting, budgeting and forecasting experience.
- Strong Excel skills are essential.
- Exposure to SAP, Hyperion, Power BI or similar reporting tools is preferred.
- Able to work independently and manage multiple priorities in a fast-paced environment.
