Job Description

About the Company

Our client is a leading global consumer goods company with a strong international presence and a portfolio of well-known consumer brands.

The finance organization is currently seeking experienced finance professionals to support ongoing strategic and operational finance initiatives. The company is open to candidates specializing in either FP&A or Finance Operations, as well as professionals with experience across both areas.

This is an excellent opportunity for finance professionals seeking flexible, project-based work with a globally recognized organization.

Position Overview

We are looking for experienced finance professionals who can contribute on a contract, freelance, outsourced, or temporary basis.

The position offers significant flexibility and is suitable for candidates looking to supplement existing consulting projects, work part-time, or engage in a long-term finance assignment within a multinational environment.

Project Duration

Initial engagement is expected to continue through December 2026, with potential extension depending on project needs and performance.

- Supporting commercial and strategic decision-making through financial insights
- Collecting, structuring, and analyzing incomplete business information

Requirements

- Experience in FP&A, Commercial Finance, Business Analysis, Financial Planning, or Management Reporting
- Strong Excel and financial modeling capabilities
- Experience developing business cases and ROI assessments
- Ability to interpret ambiguous or incomplete business data
- Business-level Japanese
- Ability to communicate and report in English

Option 2: Finance Operations & Reporting Specialist

Responsibilities

- Month-end closing activities
- Accrual calculations and journal entry processing
- Review and validation of ERP financial postings
- Financial reporting and reporting package preparation
- Supporting the accuracy and timeliness of financial results
- Coordination with finance stakeholders regarding actual performance reporting

Requirements

- Experience with month-end closing processes
- Accrual accounting and journal entry experience
- Experience using SAP or other ERP systems (SAP preferred)
- Financial reporting experience
- Business-level Japanese
- English reading and writing proficiency

Ideal Backgrounds

Professionals from the following areas are encouraged to apply:

- FP&A
