Job Description

Company: Retail Company

Position: SAP Master Data Specialist

Contract: 1-year fixed term contract

Location: London or Amsterdam (Hybrid)

Salary: 55,000 – 65,000 GBP + 10% Bonus

Job responsibilities:

- Own and manage master data operations across Customer, Vendor, Article/Material, Pricing, Product/Assortment, Employee/HR, and Compliance domains.
- Manage the end-to-end data flow from Centric 8 through Informatica and SAP S/4HANA to downstream systems including WMS, Magento, marketplaces, and regional systems.
- Maintain article, product, pricing, business partner, and organisational master data, ensuring accuracy and business continuity.
- Manage compliance-related master data including HS/commodity codes, product composition, packaging, weight, and volume, and EPR data.
- Maintain data integrations, investigate data quality issues, and coordinate resolution with internal teams and technology partners.
- Establish and maintain master data governance, authorisation controls, segregation of duties, and audit requirements.
- Support knowledge transfer, transition activities, SIT/UAT, cutover, and Day 1 readiness.
- Progressively establish the enduring in-house master data capability while coordinating with business functions and global teams.

Experience

- Bachelor's degree in IT, Computer Science, Information Systems, Supply Chain, or a related field.
- 5+ years of hands-on SAP master data / MDM experience.
- Strong experience with Informatica and end-to-end data flows involving SAP S/4HANA.
- Practical knowledge of pricing master data, HS/commodity codes, product dimensions, and EPR.
- Strong understanding of master data governance, controls, and data quality.
- Retail or fashion industry experience is highly advantageous.
- Experience with ERP separation, carve-outs, or TSA arrangements is advantageous.
- Meticulous, proactive, and able to communicate technical data topics clearly to business stakeholders.

We regret to inform applicants that only shortlisted candidates will be notified.

Thank you for understanding.
