Job Description

The Palm Oil Accounting & Tax Consolidation Manager role is a key leadership position within one of the leading organisations in the palm oil and plantation industry. The position oversees Accounting, Finance, Tax, and Financial Reporting activities across multiple entities and business units, with a core focus on accurate group financial consolidation and compliance with PSAK and tax regulations.

Responsibilities

- Lead and oversee Accounting, Finance, and Tax operations across multiple entities and business units, ensuring alignment with corporate policies, governance standards, and regulatory requirements
- Manage group financial consolidation, including intercompany reconciliations, elimination entries, consolidated financial statements, and management reporting
- Ensure the accurate and timely preparation of standalone and consolidated financial reports in accordance with PSAK and applicable regulations

- Lead budgeting, forecasting, cash flow management, financial analysis, audits, and tax compliance to support business performance and decision-making
- Drive the standardisation of accounting practices, reporting frameworks, standard operating procedures, and internal controls across subsidiaries, entities, and operational locations

Requirements

- Bachelor’s or Master’s degree in Accounting, Finance, Taxation, or a related field
- Minimum 10 years of experience in Accounting, Finance, and Tax, including at least 3 years in a managerial position, preferably within the palm oil, plantation, agribusiness, commodity, or related industries
- Experience working in a publicly listed company or large-scale corporate environment is highly preferred
- Proven experience managing Accounting and Finance operations across multiple entities, subsidiaries, and business units, including group consolidation and intercompany transactions
- Strong understanding of PSAK, financial reporting, consolidation processes, tax compliance, internal controls, and stakeholder management

About the company

A company in the palm oil and plantation industry and one of the leading organisations in its sector. The company conducts its operations through multiple entities and business units within the broader plantation and agribusiness environment.
