Job Description

About the Role
We are seeking a motivated and analytical Consultant (Business Consulting) - Japanese Speaker to join a leading consulting firm in Bangkok. This role offers an excellent opportunity to work on strategic business projects across various industries, conducting research, delivering insights, and supporting clients in solving complex business challenges.

Whether you have prior consulting experience or are looking to transition into the consulting field, we welcome ambitious professionals with strong analytical capabilities and a passion for business problem-solving.

Responsibilities

- Conduct in-depth research, analysis, and develop recommendations based on information gathered from published literature, databases, market reports, and online resources.
- Support business strategy and consulting projects by identifying key insights and translating findings into actionable recommendations.
- Arrange and conduct interviews with subject matter experts, clients, and external stakeholders to gather relevant business information.

- Prepare consulting deliverables, reports, and presentation materials for clients and internal project teams.
- Participate in internal and client meetings, workshops, and conferences, while documenting key discussion points and meeting minutes.
- Collaborate closely with Project Leaders and Project Managers to ensure project milestones and deliverables are completed on schedule.
- Analyze market trends, industry developments, and competitive landscapes to support strategic decision-making.
- Present findings and recommendations to clients and internal stakeholders when required.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree or higher in Business Administration, Economics, Finance, Engineering, International Business, or related fields.
- Japanese language proficiency (JLPT N2 level or above preferred) with the ability to communicate effectively in a business environment.
- Minimum 3 years of experience in consulting, business analysis, research analysis, strategic planning, or related fields.
- Fresh candidates or individuals without direct consulting experience but with strong analytical skills are encouraged to apply.
- Experience in business strategy, market research, corporate planning, or management consulting projects is highly advantageous.
- Strong research, analytical, and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent presentation and communication abilities.
- Proficient in Microsoft PowerPoint, Excel, and other business productivity tools.
- Ability to manage multiple projects and meet deadlines in a fast-paced environment.

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience working in a consulting firm, research organization, or corporate strategy function.
- Knowledge of Japanese business culture and experience working with Japanese clients.
- Strong data analysis and business report writing skills.
- Experience supporting cross-border or regional projects would be an advantage.

About the Company
Our client is a reputable consulting firm providing strategic advisory and business consulting services to local and international organizations. The company offers a dynamic, collaborative environment where professionals can develop their analytical, consulting, and client management skills while contributing to meaningful business transformation projects.

Interested candidates are encouraged to apply and become part of a team that drives strategic business success across various industries.
