Job Description

≪Job Description & Position Highlights≫

- Finish custom jeans through hemming, embroidery, and sewing
- Create unique jeans and experience the joy of craftsmanship
- Join a new store team and develop skills in product making
- Earn ¥1,750/hour with transport allowance and flexible shifts

【Job Responsibilities】
~ Create the One-of-a-Kind Jeans in the World with Your Own Hands ~
“DARUMA JEANS,” an experiential denim brand originating in Harajuku, is opening a new store in Shinsaibashi, Osaka! We are recruiting sewing staff for the store opening. Why not put the sewing skills you learned at school to work in a role where you can turn your passion into a profession?

< Specific Responsibilities >
You will finish each pair of jeans individually in the in-store workshop, based on designs created by customers. From hemming to fit each customer's body shape, sewing on leather patches, and adding embroidery featuring Japanese motifs, you will be responsible for the final, essential steps in completing a pair of jeans that will last a lifetime for each customer. The sewing machines and embroidery machines are located inside the store, and customers may sometimes watch you work. This is a job where you can directly experience the joy of craftsmanship.

- Hemming and size adjustments of customers' jeans
- Sewing on leather patches
- Operating embroidery machines and completing embroidery work
- Customizing products according to customer requests
- Processing, repairing, and maintaining denim products
- Checking the quality of finished products
- Keeping the workspace organized and managing supplies
- Other related duties involving sewing and processing

< Example of Work Flow >
① The customer selects the fabric, parts, and embroidery through the in-store experience
② Confirm the order details
③ Complete the finishing work, including hemming, attaching patches, and embroidery
④ Quality inspection
⑤ A one-of-a-kind pair of jeans in the world is completed for the customer!

■What Makes This Job Attractive:

- Work as an opening team member at a new store
- Put the sewing skills you learned at school to immediate use in a real workplace
- Engage in authentic craftsmanship using Japanese-made denim
- Complete special, one-of-a-kind jeans for customers from around the world
- See customers' happy faces up close
- A two-month training period is provided, allowing you to thoroughly learn the store's finishing techniques
- The employment period and start date can be discussed according to your preferences
- Hourly wage of ¥1,750 (¥1,500 during the training period)
- Employee promotion system available
- Transportation expenses provided (up to ¥30,000 per month)

■Skills You Can Develop:

- Techniques for hemming and adjusting the size of denim
- Sewing thick materials such as leather patches
- Operating commercial embroidery machines
- Quality control for completing one-of-a-kind products

< Future Career Opportunities >

- Depending on your preferences and aptitude, we can discuss the possibility of promotion to a full-time employee.
- Currently, our main focus is on experiential services, but we plan to develop product planning for future retail sales and establish a dedicated planning department. There may also be opportunities to get involved in product development by making use of your craftsmanship experience.

■Work Environment:

- In a calm, atelier-like space, we place great importance on carefully finishing each pair of jeans individually.
- As an opening team member of the new store, you will work as a team with guide staff responsible for customer service to create the customer experience from the ground up.
- You will be working alongside colleagues who share a passion for clothing production and denim.

■About DARUMA JEANS:
DARUMA JEANS is an experiential brand that uses Japanese-made denim and allows customers to create their own one-of-a-kind jeans by selecting the fabric, parts, and embroidery. The Harajuku store welcomes many customers from all over the world, and we are now opening our second store in Shinsaibashi, Osaka. The brand is operated by Mediabound Inc., an inbound tourism company that shares Japanese culture, food, and tourism experiences with travelers from around the world.
