Job Description

COMPANY OVERVIEW
Our Client is well established European 3PL and Warehousing solutions provider, and they are currently expanding its operations in Johor. The company is hiring for Warehouse Supervisor to facilitate the set up and operations of their new warehouse in PTP Industrial Area, Johor. The role requires experienced personnel with hands-on warehouse supervisory experience with the ability to contribute to the smooth and efficient execution of fulfilment and distribution activities in a fast-paced environment.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- Oversee daily warehouse activities, including receiving, put-away, picking, packing, staging, outbound dispatch, returns processing, sub-assembly, and value-added operations.
- Plan and allocate manpower, equipment, and warehouse resources to support operational priorities, service commitments, and volume requirements.

- Monitor productivity, accuracy, and work quality to ensure operational targets are achieved safely and on schedule.
- Maintain inventory accuracy through effective stock control, cycle counting, discrepancy investigation, and prompt resolution of inventory-related issues.
- Ensure compliance with operating procedures, safety requirements, quality standards, security controls, 5S practices, and audit requirements.
- Support operational excellence by managing issue escalation, coordinating root-cause analysis, implementing corrective actions, and driving service recovery efforts.
- Lead, coach, and develop warehouse personnel through daily guidance, performance feedback, training support, and effective team management.

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- Diploma / Professional Certificate (SKM) in Warehouse Operations, Logistics, Supply Chain or equivalent.
- Preferably with at least 3 years of experience as warehouse supervisor, exposure to new warehouse setup would be a plus
- Strong understanding of warehouse processes, including receiving, put-away, picking, packing, shipping, inventory control, returns handling, cycle counting, sub-assembly, and value-added services.
- Familiar with warehouse / inventory tracking systems.
- Strong communication and leadership skills.
