Job Description

Company and Job Overview
JAC's client, a leading Japanese business consulting firm, is looking for a Consultant / Project Manager.
Location: Ho Chi Minh
Job Responsibilities

- Take ownership of projects from the proposal stage through data collection, analysis, report delivery, and client communication, independently or in collaboration with overseas offices.
- Design research methodologies based on client briefs, including desk research, quantitative studies, qualitative focus groups, and expert interviews.
- Transform research data into PowerPoint presentations that highlight key business insights and actionable recommendations.
- Present research findings and strategic recommendations to clients.
- Maintain strong working relationships with research agencies and external vendors, including scope negotiation and fieldwork quality monitoring.

- Oversee project team workload, workflows, and task allocation to maintain efficiency and delivery quality.
- Support market entry and growth consulting projects for Japanese companies expanding in Vietnam and Southeast Asia.
- Collaborate with regional hubs in Singapore, Japan, and other overseas branches on cross-border consulting engagements.
- Balance work allocation across team members to support smooth project execution and avoid overloading the team.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Economics, Finance, Marketing, or related fields.
  5+ years of experience in market research, business consulting, corporate strategy, M&A advisory, or investment consulting.
- Strong project management skills with experience leading end-to-end consulting or research projects.
- Excellent analytical, problem-solving, and presentation skills.
- Proficient in PowerPoint and business report preparation.
- Strong communication and stakeholder management skills.
- Business-level English required; Japanese (JLPT N2 or above) is highly preferred.
- Experience working with Japanese clients or supporting market entry/business expansion projects is an advantage
