- 技術チーム、ビジネス関係者、マネジメント層間のコミュニケーション促進
- プロジェクトのリスクや課題、依存関係の特定と対応策の実施
- 進捗レポートやマネジメント向けプレゼンテーションの作成
- 変更される要件や優先順位への対応とプロジェクト目標の管理
- プロジェクト関連文書や品質管理プロセスの監督

Join a leading global technology and internet services organisation as a Senior IT Project Manager, overseeing technology initiatives within its international Membership Platform team.

This Tokyo-based contract opportunity is suited to experienced professionals with a strong background in IT project management, technology delivery, stakeholder coordination and cross-functional team leadership.

You will manage projects throughout their full lifecycle, from initial planning and execution through monitoring, delivery and completion.

The role focuses on coordinating project schedules, milestones, deliverables and dependencies to ensure technology initiatives progress efficiently and meet business objectives.

Working within a fast-paced international environment, you will collaborate with technical teams, business stakeholders and management to deliver projects successfully.

An important responsibility involves coordinating merchant management project schedules and ensuring that relevant stakeholders are aligned on project plans and designs.

You will lead cross-functional teams and support the delivery of technology projects on time, within scope and within budget.

The position requires effective communication between engineering teams, business functions and senior management, helping maintain clarity around project objectives, progress and priorities.

You will proactively identify project risks, dependencies and delivery issues, implementing appropriate mitigation measures and resolving challenges that could affect project outcomes.

Regular project status reporting, progress updates and executive-level presentations will be essential to keeping stakeholders informed and supporting management decisions.

You will also manage changes to project requirements and priorities while maintaining delivery objectives and coordinating expectations across teams.

The role includes oversight of project documentation, stakeholder alignment and quality assurance activities, helping maintain consistent project delivery standards.

The successful candidate will bring proven experience managing end-to-end technology projects, together with strong leadership, organisational and problem-solving capabilities.

Business-level English proficiency, equivalent to TOEIC 800 or above, is required, alongside conversational Japanese sufficient to participate in meetings conducted in both languages.

Experience with Agile methodologies, PMP certification, e-commerce platforms or software development processes will be advantageous.

The organisation operates a large international technology ecosystem spanning e-commerce, fintech, digital services and communications, providing exposure to complex digital platforms used by millions of customers worldwide.

You will benefit from a Monday-to-Friday working schedule, weekends and public holidays off, casual clothing and minimal overtime, alongside a contract arrangement designed for potential longer-term engagement.

For professionals seeking a Senior Project Manager, IT Project Manager, E-Commerce Project Manager or Global Technology Project Manager role in Tokyo, this opportunity offers the chance to lead impactful technology initiatives in an international environment.

Key Responsibilities

- Manage end-to-end IT project lifecycles, including planning, execution, monitoring, delivery and completion.
- Develop, maintain and update project plans, schedules, milestones and deliverables.
- Coordinate merchant management project schedules and ensure stakeholders are aligned on project plans and designs.
- Lead cross-functional technology and business teams to achieve project objectives.
- Drive project delivery on time, within scope and within budget.
- Facilitate effective communication between technical teams, business stakeholders and management.
- Identify, assess and manage project risks, dependencies and delivery issues.
- Develop and implement appropriate risk mitigation and issue-resolution strategies.
- Prepare project status reports, progress updates and executive-level presentations.

- Manage changing project requirements, priorities and stakeholder expectations while maintaining delivery objectives.
- Oversee stakeholder alignment, project documentation and quality assurance activities.
- Coordinate project progress and ensure that milestones and deliverables remain aligned with agreed schedules.
- Support clear communication of project objectives, timelines and responsibilities across relevant teams.
- Monitor project execution and address challenges that may affect delivery quality, schedules or budgets.
- Collaborate with international colleagues to support successful delivery within the global Membership Platform environment.
- Contribute to effective project governance, reporting and delivery coordination across technology initiatives.
