Japanese social insurance and pension, commuting/telework allowance, a welfare-discount program membership, retirement payment system, and tuition benefits for Temple University, Japan Campus (TUJ) programs.

Overview of Position

As a part of the Academic Affairs Division, the Academic Advising Center (AAC) works closely with TUJ's undergraduate students throughout the student life cycle, from orientation through graduation. Academic advisors provide holistic and proactive support to help students to achieve their academic, personal, and professional goals. Accordingly, the academic advisor provides consultative advice on curricular requirements, major/minor selection, course selection, study skills, career options, TUJ resources, programmatic opportunities, and academic support and performance. Academic advisors frequently liaise with the Office of Student Services and Engagement, Financial Aid, Admissions, Career Services, academic departments, and other relevant departments both at TUJ and Temple campuses in Philadelphia, PA and Rome, Italy.

Primary Responsibilities

The AAC provides academic advising for all undergraduate students on a caseload model. Each advisor is responsible for students within a set group of majors and/or based on their student population (e.g. first-year, transfer students). Academic advising responsibilities include:

- Engage regularly with students, on an individual and group basis, who have diverse backgrounds, nationalities, language skills, and levels of familiarity with post-secondary education.
- Provide students with access to the information and resources necessary for the attainment of academic, professional, and personal goals.
- Maintain consistent knowledge and understanding of Temple's academic policies and degree requirements.
- Act as an advocate and referral source to provide consistent outreach and follow-up services to students to ensure effective student support.
- Onboard and support new students during New Student Orientation and their first-year at TUJ.
- Review student records to verify completion of academic requirements and eligibility for graduation
- Work with the Banner Student Information System to process workflows and manage an effective student information ecosystem.

- Liaise with other academic advisors, the transfer advisor, and AAC leadership to troubleshoot complex problems pertaining to student registration, planning, exchange programs, graduation, and other common TUJ experiences.
- Ensure confidentiality and sensitivity in handling student records in compliance with university policies and relevant privacy laws.
- Promote efforts to achieve, maintain, and improve student success and retention.
- Participate in training and professional development opportunities to keep skills and knowledge up-to-date.
- Represent TUJ at various meetings and events, both internal and external.
- Communicate and further our vision, mission, and academic goals to enhance student development as noted in the TUJ Strategic Priorities and Key Objectives.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
