募集要項

Join a recognized industrial manufacturer as their Accountant/ Senior Accountant. With a strong footprint across East and Southeast Asia, the company is known for its innovative, high-performance solutions that serve key sectors such as automotive, electronics, and industrial maintenance. It's an ideal position for someone looking to broaden their skill set in a stable, team-oriented environment with flexible work arrangements.

Client Details

This globally respected industrial manufacturer has a long-standing presence across East and Southeast Asia. It specializes in high-performance chemical solutions-such as adhesives, lubricants, and coatings-used in critical sectors including automotive, electronics, and general manufacturing. Known for its technical expertise and commitment to innovation, the company operates under a decentralized business model that emphasizes customer focus, operational excellence, and long-term sustainability. Its regional teams work closely with clients to deliver tailored, high-value solutions backed by global standards and local knowledge.

Description

- Support Finance Supervisor with daily journal entries and month-end/quarter-end/year-end closings.
- Manage General Ledger accounts including inventory, sales, fixed assets, and purchases.

- Oversee Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, and intercompany transactions.
- Assist in corporate tax filings and fixed asset accounting in coordination with external CPA.
- Prepare and submit financial reports and variance analyses for management and U.S. headquarters.
- Conduct price, cost, SG&A, and spending data analyses.
- Prepare for internal audits and coordinate corrective actions.
- Provide ERP user support and liaise with system engineers as needed.
- Improve accounting and reporting processes to enhance efficiency and control.
- Manage lease contracts and office equipment including vehicles, IT devices, and communication tools.
- Handle general office administration such as property leases, insurance renewals, and onboarding equipment setup.
- Collaborate with IT teams on managing office technology infrastructure.
