募集要項

【About the Job】

The company is a full-service influencer marketing agency representing some of the top English-Speaking influencers.

As a member of the Talent Management & Sales Execution Team, your main responsibilities will include managing talent, coordinating with internal and external stakeholders, and ensuring smooth execution of projects.

【Responsibilities】

- Managing, supporting, and nurturing talent
- Negotiating on behalf of talent on brand deals
- Planning and executing campaigns
- Collaborating with other departments and managing projects
- Analyzing market trends and strategizing
- Preparing reports and presentations as needed

We are looking for a proactive, detail-oriented individual with experience in talent management or influencer coordination.

The ideal candidate will have a passion for social media, content creation, and Japanese subculture, and they should be comfortable working in a bilingual environment to bridge communication between talents and Japanese-speaking clients.

A team player who thrives under pressure and has a knack for problem-solving will excel in this role.
