- Monitor and manage office-related budgets and purchasing processes.
- Handle procurement of office supplies and ensure budget compliance.
- Coordinate building access and visitor passes.
- Maintain office cleanliness and ensure adherence to office policies.
- Liaise with cleaning services for regular and ad hoc cleaning needs.
- Distribute internal communications related to office matters.
- Manage meeting room bookings.
- Communicate with global offices and external partners as needed.
- Ensure compliance with internal policies and external regulations.
- Perform other administrative tasks as assigned.

Executive Support

- Manage a senior executive's calendar across multiple time zones.
- Arrange travel logistics including flights, accommodation, and transportation.
- Assist in preparing materials for meetings.
- Handle monthly expense claims (credit card and cash).
- Support with legal document handling and correspondence.
- Track international travel days for tax reporting purposes.
- Provide ad hoc support as required.

Requirements

- Proven experience in office administration or a similar role.
- Strong organizational and multitasking abilities with attention to detail.
- Friendly, approachable, and professional demeanor.
- Ability to build trust across all levels of the organization.
- Self-motivated, adaptable, and proactive.
- Discretion in handling confidential information.
- Strong problem-solving skills and ability to work independently.

Desirable Skills

- Experience in general affairs or corporate admin in an international setting.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Familiarity with budget and procurement processes.
- Fluent level of Japanese & English mandatory
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Teams).
- Professional appearance and attitude.
- Ability to work independently with minimal supervision.
- Strong task prioritization and time management skills.
