募集要項

Company and Job Overview

A leading Japanese trading company, mainly active in fields of chemicals/plastics, infrastructure/machinery, steel, information technology and logistics is seeking a Credit Analyst (m/f/d) in Risk Management Department.

Job Responsibilities

- Assessment of credit, market, and country risks for the business activities, as well as for offices in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and affiliated companies
- Quantitative and qualitative analysis and evaluation of the risk profiles of our business partners
- Advising and guiding business departments, including recommendations to department heads regarding decisions on credit lines
- Liaising with business partners and credit agencies on site to gather risk-relevant information
- Monitoring overdue and overdrawn credit positions, market observation, root cause analysis, and advising on necessary measures and precautions, including reporting to management
- Negotiating with debtors, insurers, lawyers, insolvency practitioners, bankruptcy trustees and courts to enforce claims

- Supporting management in handling unexpected risk events
- Conducting internal seminars or training sessions to promote risk management awareness within business departments

Job Requirements

- Successfully completed bank clerk apprenticeship or university degree in economics, finance or similar qualification
- Professional experience in B2B risk management, ideally within internationally operating companies, commercial/investment banks, or credit insurers
- Affinity for numbers and analytical thinking, especially in evaluating consolidated financial statements; basic knowledge of corporate and project finance as well as international macroeconomics
- Familiarity with international trade practices (e.g. Incoterms, payment terms)
- Excellent command of English, both written and spoken; German language skills are an advantage
- Proficient in MS Office applications
- Strong communication skills and confident demeanor
- High level of proactivity, commitment, and sense of responsibility, combined with a structured, goal-oriented, and independent working style
- Enjoy working in a diverse and international team

BENEFITS

- A pleasant working atmosphere
- Salary commensurate with performance
- Social benefits and career opportunities in a globally operating trading group
