募集要項

The PM leads end-to-end delivery of digital and web projects, overseeing scoping, scheduling, technical planning, cross-functional coordination, vendors, and QA to ensure all deliverables are completed on time and within budget. This role requires strong client communication skills, CMS and frontend production knowledge, and the ability to operate autonomously in a fast-paced, global digital environment.

Client Details

The client is a well-known global digital agency recognized for delivering high-quality web solutions for major international brands. They offer a modern, creative environment where you can work on large-scale digital projects, collaborate with talented cross-functional teams, and grow your skills in a fast-paced, innovative setting.

Description

- Lead full end-to-end delivery of digital and web projects with high autonomy and ownership.
- Work directly with clients to translate business needs into clear technical requirements and project plans.
- Coordinate designers, developers, and external vendors to deliver top-quality digital experiences on time.
- Drive documentation, IA/wireframes, CMS planning, QA, and overall production quality.
- Join a global, fast-paced digital environment with opportunities to impact major brand projects.

Job Offer

- Competitive compensation package.
- Global team + flexible working for someone who wants international exposure.
- Perfect for a Frontend-focused PM who wants ownership of digital project delivery.
