募集要項

POSITION TITLE Sales Manager (Feeding Equipment)

POSITION SUMMARY

In this role, you will drive sales growth for advanced livestock feeding equipment across North America. You will build strong relationships with key customers and partners while collaborating with internal teams to deliver end-to-end solutions that enhance the company's market presence.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lead sales development and channel expansion for feeding equipment across North America
- Build and maintain relationships with large dairy operations, dealers, and service partners

- Analyze market trends, competitors, and customer needs to develop regional sales strategies
- Work closely with technical, operations, and after-sales teams to deliver comprehensive customer solutions
- Achieve annual sales targets and strengthen brand presence in the livestock equipment market

QUALIFICATIONS

- Minimum 3 years of experience in the livestock, dairy, or agricultural equipment industry in North America
- Background in sales or mechanical/technical fields preferred
- Strong communication, negotiation, and project management skills
- Willingness to travel within North America
- Proactive, results-driven, and comfortable working independently in a fast-growing environment

LOCATION Ontario, California

SALARY USD90,000-140,000 (based on experience and skills)

TIME OFF & BENEFITS 3 weeks paid annual leave + U.S. public holidays, comprehensive medical insurance
