■ Position: Service Engineer

■ Location: Mumbai, India

■ Language Requirement: Japanese proficiency (JLPT N3 or above), Business-level English

■ Position Overview

The company supplies packaging-related equipment used by consumer goods manufacturers, imported from overseas group locations.

As equipment installations increase, the company is seeking a Service Engineer to support installation, maintenance, troubleshooting, and technical assistance for customers across India.

■ Key Responsibilities

- Install equipment at customer sites and conduct setup, testing, and commissioning
- Perform troubleshooting, repairs, and routine maintenance

- Provide operational training and technical guidance to customer personnel
- Support sales with technical demonstrations and pre-sales explanation
- Travel frequently within India to handle customer requirements

■Required Qualifications

- Experience as a Service Engineer or Field Engineer
- Knowledge of mechanical, electrical, or mechatronics systems
- Japanese language proficiency (JLPT N3 or above required)

■Preferred Qualifications

- Experience working with industrial equipment, automation systems, or packaging-related machinery

■Compensation

Based on experience
