【Job Description】

Attraction and Recruitment Strategy

- In partnership with the Recruitment Marketing team, design and lead the attraction and events strategy for our 3 core internship programs.
- Host virtual, in-office and on-campus events to attract junior talent. Activities include delivering presentations, participating in panel sessions, networking and arranging divisional representation.
- Work closely with the Recruitment Marketing and Diversity teams on diversity campus recruitment initiatives.
- Partner with Recruitment Marketing as an SME. Support the effective management of School/University relations and Campus Ambassadors in raising the Firm's profile.
- Gather and analyze data for end of season debriefs and deliver to key stakeholders; this includes conducting a review of the success of the division's attraction and recruitment strategy every year.
- Partner closely with campus recruiters in other regions: APAC, North America and EMEA on regional and global strategies to attract overseas talent to Morgan Stanley Japan.

Selection and Process Reporting

- Partner with the hiring businesses as an advisor to support the recruitment process and build a strong talent pipeline to identify top talent.

- Lead the recruiting working groups ensuring successful engagement and delivery of the campus strategy. This includes:
 - Ensuring business representatives are briefed and receive all relevant information to perform the selection process.
 - Tracking hot listed candidates from events, monitoring their progress, and implementing initiatives to increase conversion from event attendance to application.
 - Advising business stakeholders around hiring decisions to support achieving divisional and Firmwide talent goals.
 - The effective delivery of the offer process to ensure top talent accept the internship/full-time offer.
 - Ensuring the various recruiting systems are kept up to date and maintaining accurate records.
 - Partnering across wider HR teams to successfully onboard campus hires.
 - Regularly reviewing divisional interview materials and processes to ensure they meet business and legal requirements.
 - Auditing hiring reports to ensure divisional data is accurate.

Program Management and Stakeholder Management

- Partner with the Campus Talent Development team and divisional recruiting working groups on the design and execution of intern programs.
- Manage the team allocation process for intern hires alongside divisional management.
- Ownership of the internship experience including coordinating and briefing speakers
- Act as an advisor to line managers supporting them to effectively manage, develop and assess their interns whilst on programs.
- Manage the intern performance review process and facilitate the conversion process to full time Analyst and Associate programs.
- Assist regional wider Campus Team and Recruitment Marketing Teams with Early Insight and Diversity initiatives.
- Support Hiring Managers throughout the process, ensuring they are kept updated and experience a high touch service.
- Budget Management and supporting the preparation of annual budget meetings with COO's.

Additional Responsibilities

- Keep up to date with current and impending legislation, developments and changes in the graduate market and propose changes to graduate recruiting policies and practices.
- Share divisional best practices with the wider Asia and Global Campus Recruitment Teams
- Undertake team projects and ad hoc requests as required.
