募集要項

≪Position Overview & Highlights≫

- Provide end-to-end implementation support for SAP SuccessFactors, from requirements definition through implementation and ongoing operations and maintenance
- Opportunity to contribute to the advancement of HR operations through global projects and support clients' management and decision-making processes

- Opportunity to be involved in upstream processes and pre-sales, developing both domain expertise and project execution capabilities
- 67.8% remote work ratio and 81.3% paid leave utilization rate, with extensive support for language learning and childcare

【Responsibilities】
As a subject-matter expert across business processes, product functionality, and project delivery, you will develop solutions and lead both clients and team members.
Working closely with Project Managers, you will be involved in upstream activities such as system planning, quality management for your assigned area, and pre-sales support, while contributing to project delivery from a broader perspective.

■SAP SuccessFactors:
With the mission of “Reinventing HR in Japan,” we provide consulting services that accelerate our clients’ businesses by supporting decision-making across their global operations through HR systems.

Our primary product is SAP SuccessFactors. Starting with human capital management and talent management, we cover end-to-end processes including compensation and payroll management, contributing to the advancement and efficiency of our clients’ HR operations.
As there is also strong demand for outsourced payroll management, we are the exclusive partner for ADP in Japan and are working together to expand the payroll services market in Japan, not only through implementation but also through joint market development.

Our projects are primarily global projects for medium- to large-sized enterprise clients, including replacement projects involving solutions previously implemented by major consulting firms. More recently, we have also begun providing operations and maintenance services, expanding the team with the goal of providing comprehensive services from implementation through stable operations and continuous improvement after go-live.
You will be involved throughout the entire SAP SuccessFactors implementation lifecycle, from requirements definition and system implementation through operations and maintenance.

※Notes regarding this position
The responsibilities described above represent general responsibilities for this position. Depending on your previous experience, you may have experience in some areas while having limited or no experience in others. For areas in which you have limited experience, training and skill development may be required and supported by our company.

Detailed responsibilities and expectations for each practice/title will be explained during the interview process.

Our Managers will also introduce the strategies of each practice, and we welcome questions regarding the roles and responsibilities required to achieve the practice's vision.
