Company Overview:

Our client is a well-established global MNC in the engineering industry with over 50 years of history in the production of cables, hoses, tubes, optical fibers and plastics. As part of their business expansion, we are looking for an experienced Sales Engineer with a background in engineering and handling industrial sales.

Job Responsibilities:

- Grow and manage your territory through proactive business development activities.
- Identify, approach, and engage potential customers across various industries.
- Build long-term customer relationships and uncover new sales opportunities.
- Recommend tailored technical solutions based on customer requirements.

- Drive the full sales cycle from prospecting and consultation to negotiation and closing deals.

Job Requirements:

- Minimum bachelor's degree (or equivalent)
- Minimum 2 years' technical sales experience
- Knowledge of Bahasa Malaysia and preferably mandarin + very good English (Business Proficiency)
- Malaysian citizen
- Valid driving license
- Willingness to pursue a long-term career in sales
- Motivation to learn about high technology and become an industry expert
- Proactive attitude and drive to achieve targets
