Position Overview

We are seeking dedicated Japanese-English Medical Interpreters to make a meaningful difference in patients' healthcare journeys! When patients and healthcare professionals speak different languages, misunderstandings can directly impact how patients understand their diagnoses, treatments, and medications. In this vital role, you will bridge that communication gap—ensuring Japanese-speaking patients feel heard, understood, and supported when they need it most. No previous interpreting experience is required, and you can work 100% from the comfort of your home.

5 Key Highlights of This Role

- 1. 100% Work From Home (Fully Remote) Eliminate your daily commute and work from your own quiet home workspace. Open to qualified bilingual candidates based in Malaysia, Japan, or other eligible locations.
- 2. No Previous Interpreting Experience Required New to medical interpreting? We provide a structured 4-week training program to equip you with the essential medical terminology, protocols, and interpreting skills needed to succeed.

- 3. Elevate Your Bilingual Career Beyond Customer Service Put your native-level Japanese and business-level English to meaningful use in a specialized, high-impact healthcare environment.
- 4. Clear & Competitive Hourly Rate (USD 8 / Hour) Earn USD 8 per hour on a full-time schedule (8 hours/day, 5 days/week), offering strong earning potential (~USD 1,380–1,400/month) while working remotely.
- 5. Make a Real Difference in People's Lives Play a crucial role in helping patients accurately understand medical diagnoses, treatment options, and medication instructions during critical moments.
